

Audio News Release
The Royal Embassy of Saudi Arabia
DR. ALYAS/85-Most Wanted List

February 5, 2009

REPORTER: SAUDI ARABIA ISSUED A NEW LIST OF 85-MOST WANTED TERROR SUSPECTS, UNDERSCORING THE COUNTRY'S ONGOING WORK TO COMBAT THE TERRORIST THREAT.

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF THE SAUDI INFORMATION OFFICE, DR. ABDULMOHSEN ALYAS:

ALYAS: "Terrorism and extremism remain a threat—in Saudi Arabia and around the world. This new list of the 85 most wanted updates our priorities in fighting terror."

REPORTER: THIS LATEST LIST IS THE COUNTRY'S FOURTH MOST WANTED LIST IN OVER FIVE YEARS. SAUDI ARABIA HAS BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN KILLING OR CAPTURING MOST ALL THOSE ON PREVIOUS LISTS.

DR. ALYAS:

ALYAS: "Although Saudi Arabia has seen many successes fighting terror in recent years, we recognize the importance of being diligent in pursuing the men, the money and the mindset that support both terrorism and extremism."

REPORTER: I'M TYLER SONNECHSEN REPORTING.

THIS REPORT HAS BEEN PRODUCED BY QORVIS COMMUNICATIONS ON BEHALF OF THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA.

2009 FEB -6 AM 11:33
CRM/CES/REGISTRATION UNIT